ACTIVITY #1

Tom Dekyvere's sculpture, "Eiantica," is on the pedestrian pathway by the Riverwalk Lawn. Write down all the colors and shapes that you can see when you look up. Can you think of any natural or man-made forms that look like this sculpture?

ACTIVITY #2

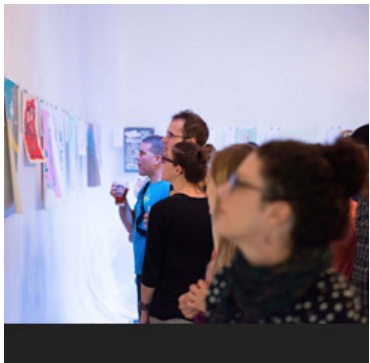

ART AROUND TOWN TOURS

Breckenridge Creative Arts offers multiple tours to showcase the Town's public art collection, the Arts District campus and other cultural highlights in our community. Free docent-led tours are available June through August, Thursdays from 3-4pm and Fridays from 5-6pm. Tours are capped at 10 participants. Register in advance to ensure at spot at breckcreate.org

TEACHER ACADEMY

Earn graduate level credit from Adams State University through the Teacher Academy. In this free class, teachers will learn how to engage, inspire, and educate students through object based learning; how to create and realize lesson plans centered around artwork; and how to build a creative toolkit to connect students with artwork. Register online at breckcreate.org

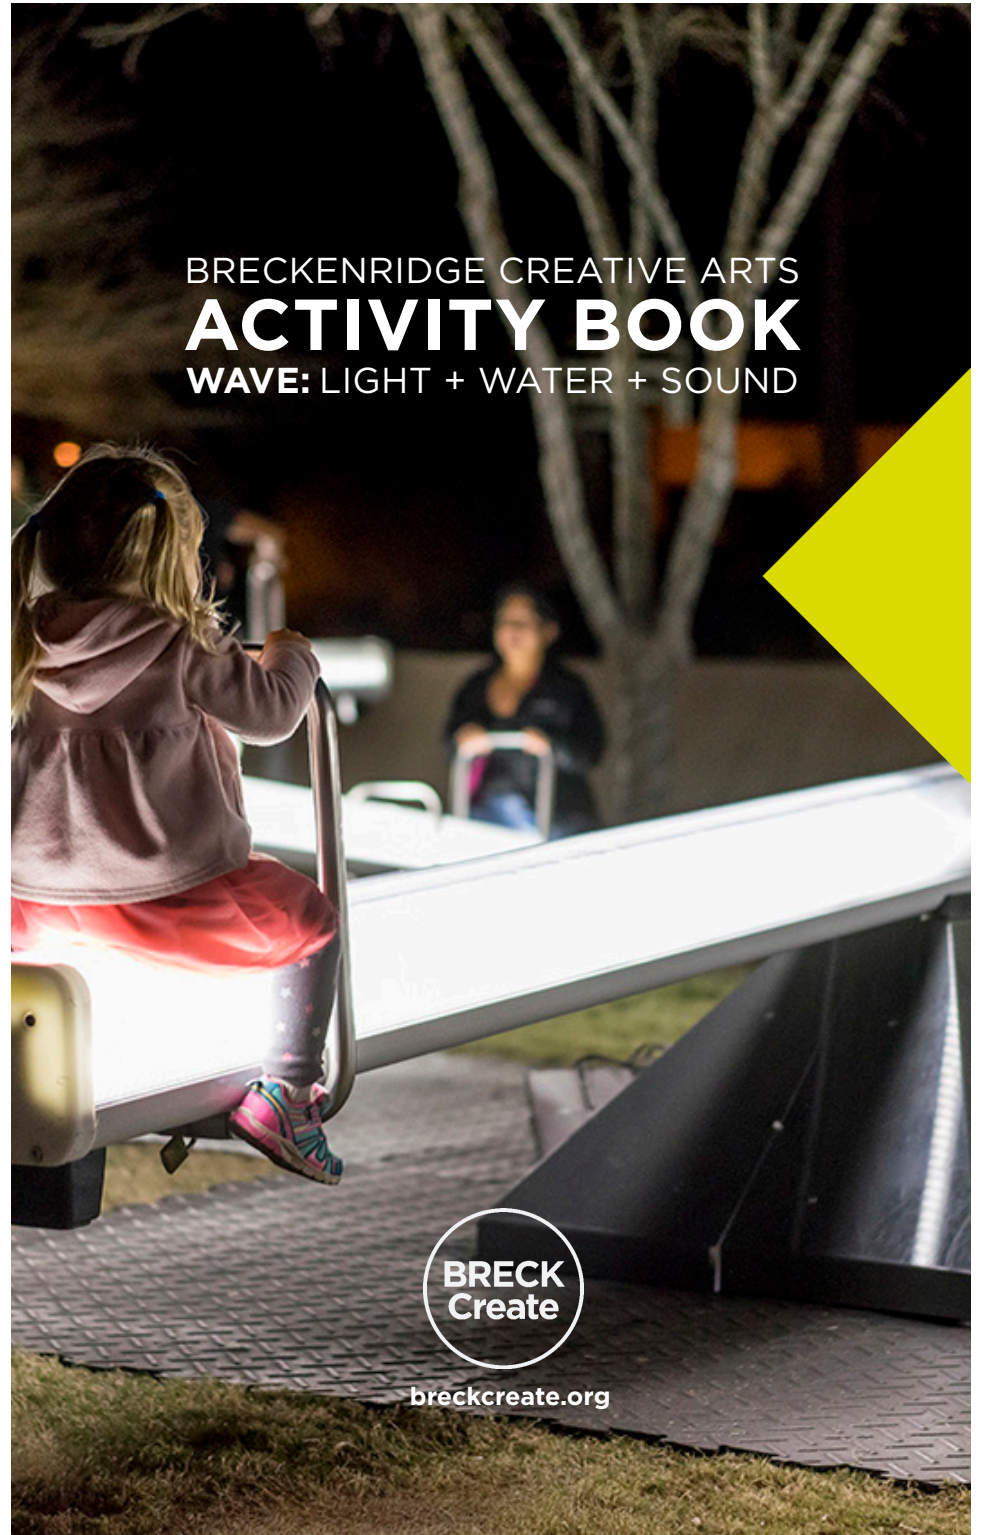

STUDENT EXHIBITION

Student exhibitions are co-curated by students at Summit High School and Breckenridge Creative Arts. Artwork reflects individual techniques, styles and themes. Exhibitions are bi-annual in the lower level of the Breckenridge Grand Vacations Community Center and Summit County South Branch Library. The current show, "Cloud of Wonder," runs from May 2 through Oct 1 2018.

FIELD TRIPS

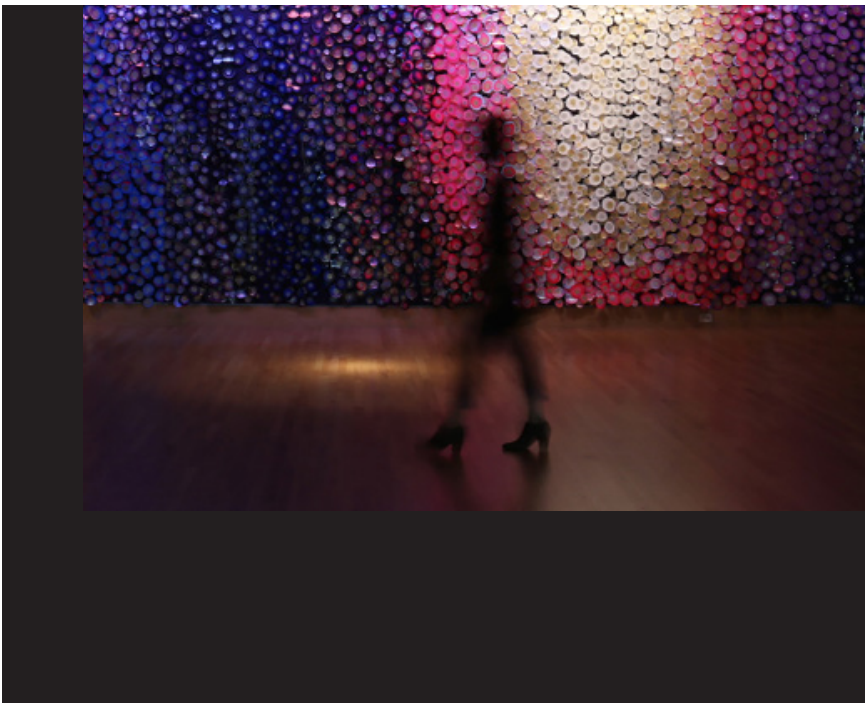

Did you know that Breckenridge Creative Arts offers field trips for local schools from September through May? Through hands-on workshops and visits with resident artists, students are encouraged to make meaningful connections to their curriculum, their world and themselves. To plan a field trip, please contact Becca Spiro at becca@breckcreate.org.

ACTIVITY #3

"Aura" by Julie Hughes, is composed of tens of thousands of hand-painted and cut acrylic paintings on thin plastic. How long do you think it took the artist to make this work? If you squint your eyes, what shapes do you see?

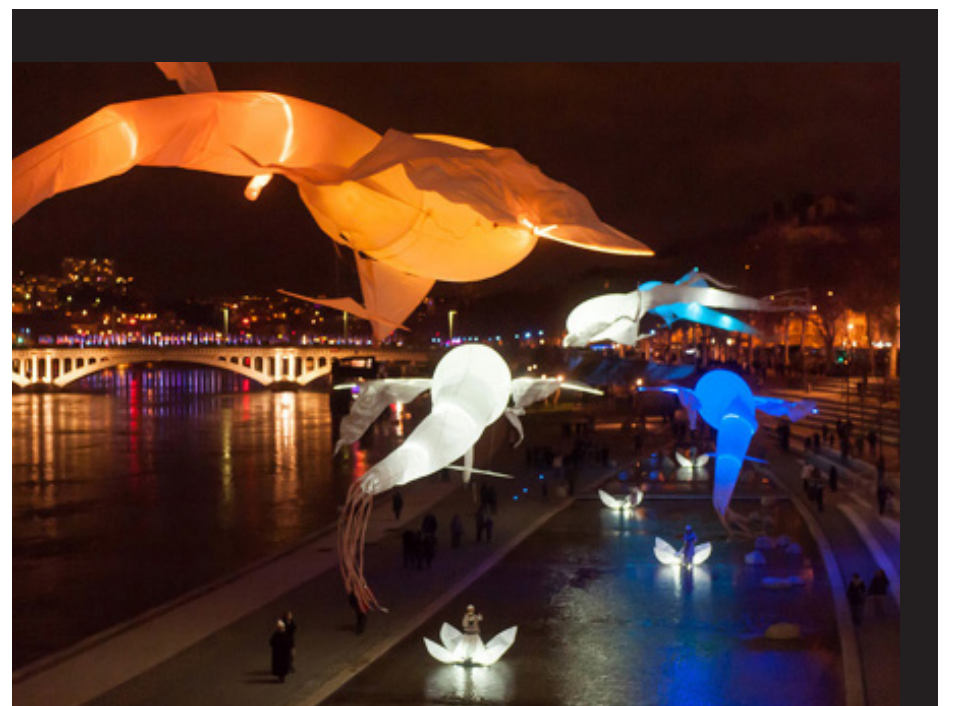

ACTIVITY #4

"Impulse" is a sculpture that is activated by touch. What happens when you ride the seesaws? What happens when you stay up in the air longer? Can you describe the noises that are produced from these sculptures?

ACTIVITY #5

"Interphase" by Cacheflowe, is an interactive musical light sculpture that invites visitors to create sound and light compositions. Have you ever composed or created a song? What factors did you consider in this process?

ACTIVITY #6

"Les Luminéoles" by Porté par le Vent, is an installation that involves graceful movement. How is the flight of the carps and dragonflies controlled? Watch the "puppeteers" below and try to mimic their body language. Do real-life carps and dragonflies move the same way?
