

Field Trips with Breckenridge Creative Arts

STEP ONE: Choose a Date: We offer field trips for teachers and students of all ages on the 1st and 3rd Friday of every month from September through May. Trips are generally scheduled from 9am-noon. Use the space below to write down 3 dates that would work for you (within those parameters):

STEP TWO: Tour Content: Would you like your tour to include exhibitions in Old Masonic Hall and the Breckenridge Theater and/or objects from the Public Art Collection (outside, around campus)?

STEP THREE: Your Students: Provide us with some information about you and your students

Average Age: of Students:
Grade Level or subject that you teach:
Current unit/topic of study:
English, Spanish or Bilingual students:

STEP FOUR: We incorporate 2-3 studio art workshops during field trips. (Cost for each workshop: $5 per student for materials + $100 per instructor). Do you have a preference on medium? We offer classes in ceramics, metalsmithing, glassblowing, painting, printmaking, drawing, sculpture, photography, sewing/textiles, writing and mixed media. *Metalsmithing and glassblowing may only be appropriate for ages 15 and up.

STEP FIVE: After completing this form, please scan and or email an electronic copy to Becca Spiro at becca@breckcreate.org. NOTE: Cost for field trips is calculated as follows: $5 per student for materials + $100 per instructor).
